

> IN BUSINESS Apple launches Safari browser for Windows. A7

> IN SPORTS Notre Dame QB considering transfer to UC. 1C

100 THINGS TO DO
Our list of local musts
IN LIFE

Cincinnati.Com

GO ONLINE FOR: DATA CENTER: HOW MUCH DOES YOUR BOSS MAKE?

INTERACTIVE: TRACKING ONLINE PREDATORS

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER

TUESDAY, JUNE 18 2007

FN 50 CENTS

Cincinnati.Com

PHOTO GALLERY

Celebrity golf: Anthony Munoz and Joe Nuxhall had charity golf tournaments Monday. For photos from both events, go to Cincinnati.Com.
Keyword: photos

Munoz

Up Front

Must reads inside today's Enquirer

Harper was an artist all his life

With just a few brush strokes, Charley Harper created instantly recognizable animals. The artist died Sunday at 84.
LOCAL B4

Persona non grata taken to court

Virgil Tuttle's been arrested 22 times for trespassing on the UC campus.
LOCAL B1

Enviro-friendly plus a river view

New downtown condos will be built "green."

Luzmilda Blue

Blue. She

WHAT'S UP ?

... new, useful, fun

Hear it: Local bands on Gold Star ads

New local bands chosen for Gold Star Chili's "Get Lost in the Taste" TV commercial contest are the Kevin Fox Band and the Lab-Monkeys. Their spots, starting today, feature the Footlong Cheese Coney ($2.89) and Root Beer Float ($1.99), on the menu for a limited time. More on the contest and bands at www.goldstarchili.com.

revived

An office building at Third and Sycamore downtown would be 37 stories or more, taller than the Carew Tower.
Artist's rendering

Schools' t keeps ng flat

Further' kwell insists

Where's the money going?

About three-fifths of money spent in Cincinnati Public Schools goes directly to the individual schools, which have broad authority to spend as they wish.

TOTAL: $428,314,930

State allocation	$265.8M	62.0%
Charter schools
Public tuition	$61.8M	14.4%
State support	$34.7M	8.1%
Service	$25.9M	6.0%
Local administration	$18.5M	4.3%
Federal support	$10.5M	2.5%
Teacher development	$10.5M	2.5%
Clerical	$404,960	0.1%
School board	$343,240	0.1%

Source: Cincinnati Public Schools. The Enquirer

The district will achieve $21 million in savings by cutting 261 jobs, of which 206 were announced previously.

In addition, the district will cut the equivalent of 11.5 positions out of its administrative significant, shifts in policy.

Emotions high as trial